Dear Mr. Jefferson:

I am writing to apply for an internship for the summer of 2004. I am intrigued by the wonderful assortment of projects shown on your 3D reel, and I think it would be an excellent opportunity to learn from such an experienced production setting as yours.

I'm currently pursuing a B.F.A. at the Savannah College of Art and Design in 3D character animation and am quickly learning the techniques essential for a successful animator. However, I would like to learn from you more on timing, strong poses, and of the fine-tuning techniques that make characters really come to life. From my recent projects, I've animated both with detailed bone structures using IK handles and blend shapes, as well as using clusters on a lattice. Through these experiences I've found myself able to organize my time well, persevere through the more difficult tasks, and to work hard until the deadline.

I've enclosed for you a copy of my résumé and demo reel, as well as a link to my online portfolio that I update frequently. I will be contacting you during the week of March 8th – 12th to discuss a possible opportunity with your company. I appreciate your time in reviewing my application.

Sincerely,
